~~collector~~, $10 shall be remitted to the Department of Revenue to be deposited into the Highway Safety Operating Trust Fund. Such person shall also be in compliance with requirements of chapter 322 prior to reinstatement.

Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 322.02, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

322.02 Legislative intent; administration.--

(1) The Legislature finds that over the past several years the department and individual county tax collectors have entered into contracts for the delivery of full and limited driver license services where such contractual relationships best served the public interest through state administration and enforcement and local government implementation. It is the intent of the Legislature that future interests and processes for developing and expanding the department's relationship with tax collectors and other county constitutional officers through contractual relationships for the delivery of driver license services be achieved through the provisions of this chapter, thereby serving best the public interest considering accountability, cost-effectiveness, efficiency, responsiveness, and high-quality service to the drivers in Florida.

Section 4. Subsection (10) is added to section 322.135, Florida Statutes, to read:

322.135 Driver's license agents.--

(10) The department is hereby authorized to contract with any county constitutional officer to provide driver license services in the same manner as provided in this section in a county where the tax collector is not elected, or elects not to provide driver license services.
